

Using a past participle, in conjunction with the auxiliary verb, haber, adds contextual strength and accuracy to one's words.

El uso de un participio pasado, junto con el verbo auxiliar, haber, agrega fuerza contextual y precisión a las palabras de uno.

To form the past participle of a regular verb, you drop the infinitive ending (-ar, -er, -ir) and add -ado to the stem of -ar verbs and -ido to the stem of -er and -ir verbs.

Para formar el participio pasado de un verbo regular, suelta la terminación infinitiva (-ar, -er, -ir) y agrega -ado a la raíz de los verbos -ar y -ido a la raíz de los verbos -er y -ir.
